THE FRONTIER 1964

"No one in this school will wear skirts above the knees," said Mr. Stokes shortly.

"Thats no bull," Mr Townsend uddered.

"I'm afraid you girls will never learn to sew," Mrs. Fuelling needled.

"I've ordered a pair of elevator shoes," said Derrell Kennell shortly.

S H S

"The Junior class sells good hot dogs," said Mrs. Fuelling frankly.

"Why can't I ride my horse in the Homecoming Parade?" Carol nagged.

"I think I'm engaged!" said Steve Holt ringingly.

"I think I have another flat," said Rod tirelessly.

"This problem is very simple," Mrs. Schade added.

SMILES

"This car has a 4 speed gear box." said Carol shiftily.

"The Indians were unfriendly" said Mr. Ridnauer without reservation

"Don't add so much fuse oxygen." said Mrs. Peterson explosively.

"I do not rat my hair" said Judy teasingly.

"I can't do a thing with my eyebrows" said Linda pluckily.

"That gun" said Paulsen disarmingly.

"This arrow has gone through my hat" Mr. Shilling pointed out.

"I wish you'd stop treating me like a dog!" Nick growled

"Who?" asked Mrs Miller owlishly.

ANNUAL STAFF

In this, our 1964 Frontier, we of the Annual Staff have tried to give you some highlights of our Senior year and of our past. We hope you will enjoy our book as much as we have enjoyed making it.

As our light as high school students flickers out, we pass the torch to the underclassmen with the hope that we have, in some way, brightened their year and lighted their pathway.

Our marching band received the 15th consecutive Division I Rating at marching contest in October.

During the summer we marched and played for all the rodeo performances. We also marched at Nebraska City, Riverton, and Farragut. In August the band went to Des Moines to march in the state American Legion Convention parade and stayed overnight to sight-see the next day. Later in August we went to Des Moines to play at the State Fair.

This fall, besides our activities at homecoming, we marched in the Tabor and Glenwood homecoming parades, marched in the Hamburg Popcorn Festival Parade, and participated in Omaha University's Band Day.

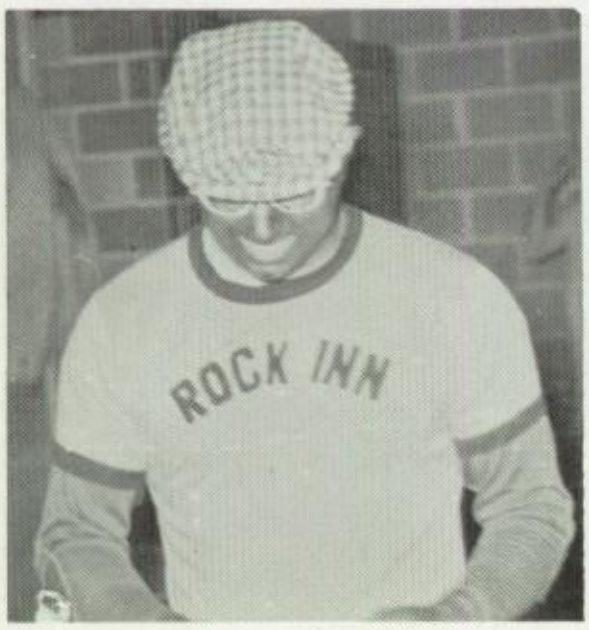
FACULTY – VARSITY GAME !?

Best of luck in the future.



Dear Mary
I was here yesterday with my football shoes. I said hello last night. I shall see you. Rats of Rock and what sort of simple stuff. This writing is a little shaky but that's alright. Have as much fun next year as I'm going to have.

Your school chum

Skip

Dear miss Miller
This happens to be written on the keys so it is kind of bad writting. Good Luck in the Future.

Dale

Dear Sue,
Well school is almost at an end. Won't be long 'till your installation. I guess you will make a good Worthy Advisor. Good Luck

Linda

Dear Maria.
Good luck to a real sweet girl and good friend. Keep happy and if you find anything interesting this summer send it to me Love

Cindy

Dear Mary Sue,
It has been a lot of fun sitting next to you in History and being in O.E. with you this year!! Good Luck to you whatever you decide to do in the future.

Your friend,
Cindy C.

Dear Mary Sue,
I will be the first to write on this page.
I sure have enjoyed knowing you these passed years. Going down town and all.
Good luck next year. Don't take all the boys away when you go to college. I may be back.
Best Wishes
Shirley

Dear Mary Sue,
We've had lots of fun and hope we will next year. Take it easy and don't work to hard on Spanish. It can hardly seem that we have just one more year. Good Luck and have fun.
Your friend
Mary Sue B.

Mary Sue,
Well we have had some chicks this year fighting with Mr. Dupy and we are bound to have more—
Loads of luck to a cutie.
Barb

P.S. Well, I thought I would write a little more — And I don't know why - you know they say "Life's just a bowl of cherries" I think they must have already been all picked - right well best of luck from another lonely heart —
Barb

"No one in this school will wear skirts above the knees," said Mr. Stokes shortly.

"Thats no bull." Mr Townsand saddened

"I'm afraid you girls will never learn to sew." Mrs. Fuelling needled.

"She ordered a pair of elevator shoes," said Darrell [illegible] shortly.

SHS

"The Junior class sells good hot dogs", said Mrs. Fuelling frankly.

"Why can't I ride my horse in the Homecoming Parade?" Carol nagged.

"I think I have another flat." said Rod tirelessly.

"I think I'm engaged!" said Steve Holt ringingly.

"This problem is very simple." Mrs. Schade added.

SMILES

"I thrilled to be the Homecoming Queen," said Suzie royally.

"This car has a 4 speed gear box." said Carol shiftily.

"The Indians were unfriendly" said Mr. Eidnauer without reservation

"Don't add so much pure oxygen." said Mrs. Peterson explosively.

"I do not rat my hair" said Judy teasingly.

"I can't do a thing with my eyebrows" said Linda pluckily.

"Mike, drop that water gun" said Mr. Paulsen disarmingly.

"This arrow has gone through my rat", Mr. Shilling pointed out.

"I wish you'd stop treating me like a dog!" Nick growled

"Who?" asked Mrs Miller owlishly.
